Step 1 - Underpainting

Timestamp 1:57

“Blocking In Values“

PAINT

- Cadmium Yellow Medium = CYM
- Phthalo Blue = PB
- Ultramarine Blue = UB
- Burnt Sienna = BS
- Dioxazine Purple = DP
- Mars Black = MB
- Titanium White = TW

BRUSHES & TOOLS

- Medium Hog Bright

COLOR MIXES

- Dark Grey = PB + UB > BS
- Blue Grey = PB + MB > TW
- Light Yellow = TW > CYM

STEP DISCUSSION

Load the brush with the Dark Grey mix. Roughly paint the snowy area in the foreground starting with a horizontal line just under the halfway point. then angling it off either side of the canvas on either side. Rinse the brush.

Paint both sides of the background using the Blue Grey mix, leaving an almost circular shape in the center. Wipe the excess paint off the brush with a towel, then without rinsing, load on some Titanium White and continue moving this color inward, while blending the edges of the previous color. Rinse the brush.

Paint the remaining area with the Light Yellow mix and blending it into the edges of the previous color. Add even More Titanium White onto the brush and lighten the very center of the background, effectively creating a keyhole of light. Rinse the brush.

Dry the surface before continuing to the next step.

Sherpa Tip: It is ok if the paint looks streaky and scruffy at this point.

STEP 1 PHOTO

If you did not understand any part of this step you can ask in the comment section of this video and I will do my best to answer.

Step 2 - Distant Background

Timestamp 8:19

“Softly Out Of Focus”

PAINT

- Cadmium Red Medium = CRM
- Cadmium Yellow Medium = CYM
- Phthalo Blue = PB
- Mars Black = MB
- Titanium White = TW

BRUSHES & TOOLS

- Medium Hog Bright

COLOR MIXES

- Light Yellow = TW > CYM
- Orange = CYM + CRM
- Dark Blue = PB + MB
- Blue Grey = PB + MB > TW
- Peachy Orange = CYM + CRM > TW

STEP DISCUSSION

Paint another layer of the Light Yellow mix in the center of the keyhole of light. This will soften and refine the area, and cover over any green cast. As you move outward begin blending in a bit more Cadmium Yellow Medium.

Without rinsing load on some of the Orange mix, and paint a band of this color at the top center of the canvas. Very carefully blend this color, wet into wet, into the yellow edges.

Paint a small area on the right side of the canvas where the background and the foreground meet using the Dark Blue mix. Dry brush small circular strokes to imply distant bushes, starting from the center of the horizon line to the right side of the canvas, using the Blue Grey mix. Apply similar bushes on the left side, blending both sides into the dark shadows along the edges of the canvas.

Create the distant foliage, arching along either side of the background, using light pressure and the same Blue Grey mix. Rinse and wipe the brush.

Blend the Peachy Orange mix, starting from the edges of the center of light and moving outwardly towards the distant bushes and foliage. Then, use the Light Yellow mix to blend in an irregular edge along the bright center. Continue creating irregular edges until you are happy. Rinse the brush.

Dry the surface before continuing to the next step.

STEP 2 PHOTO

If you did not understand any part of this step you can ask in the comment section of this video and I will do my best to answer.

- Golden's Acrylic Satin Glazing Liquid = ASL

BRUSHES & TOOLS

- Small Synthetic Round

COLOR MIXES

- Muted Grey = PB + TW > BS > MB

STEP DISCUSSION

Use the Muted Grey mix on the toe of the brush to paint the very distant trees. These trees are bare of leaves and located along either side of the keyhole of light. They are very muted because they are back lit by the sun. Rinse the brush.

Dry the surface before continuing to the next step.

STEP 3 PHOTO

If you did not understand any part of this step you can ask in the comment section of this video and I will do my best to answer.

Step 4 - Burgundy Leaves

- Cadmium Yellow Medium = CYM
- Dioxazine Purple = DP

BRUSHES & TOOLS

- X-Small Synthetic Round

COLOR MIXES

- Burgundy = CRM + DP
- Burnt Orange = CYM + CRM > DP

STEP DISCUSSION

Load the damp brush with the Burgundy mix. Begin painting the foliage on the right side randomly, leaving a lot of open spaces. Use soft circular strokes and continue down into the lower shrubs. Repeat that same process on the left side. Rinse and wipe the brush.

As you move inward, closer to the light source, begin adding lighter leaves using the Burnt Orange mix. Rinse the brush.

Dry the surface before continuing to the next step.

STEP 4 PHOTO

If you did not understand any part of this step you can ask in the comment section of this video and I will do my best to answer.

- Muted Red = CRM > DP

STEP DISCUSSION

Highlight the forward edges of lighter leaves using the Bright Orange mix, using the same technique as before. Rinse and wipe the brush.

Dry the surface before continuing to the next step.

STEP 5 PHOTO

If you did not understand any part of this step you can ask in the comment section of this video and I will do my best to answer.

Step 6 - Midground Trees

Timestamp 42:08

“Blessed Day”

PAINT

- Ultramarine Blue = UB
- Mars Black = MB
- Titanium White = TW

BRUSHES & TOOLS

- Small Synthetic Round

COLOR MIXES

- Paynes Grey = UB + MB

STEP DISCUSSION

Use the toe of the brush and the Paynes Grey mix to start planting trees on both sides of the canvas. The trees closer to the front are larger in perspective. Paint branches here and there that get thinner towards the end creating an arched canopy. Add a drop of water to improve paint flow as needed.

As you get closer to the light source on the right, begin to lighten the mix by adding a little Titanium White. These trees are a bit further back so they will be somewhat smaller. Weave small branches onto them. Continue to adjust and lighten the mix and paint these trees on the left side as well. Rinse the brush.

Dry the surface before continuing to the next step.

STEP 6 PHOTO

If you did not understand any part of this step you can ask in the comment section of this video and I will do my best to answer

Step 7 - Snow

Timestamp 56:51

“A Little More Interesting“

PAINT

- Phthalo Blue = PB
- Ultramarine Blue = UB
- Mars Black = MB
- Titanium White = TW
- Golden's Acrylic Satin Glazing Liquid = ASL

BRUSHES & TOOLS

- Medium Hog Bright
- Small Synthetic Round

COLOR MIXES

- Cool White = TW > PB
- Light Grey = TW > (UB + MB)

STEP DISCUSSION

Paint the snow in the foreground using the Cool White mix. Apply the paint using the edge of the hog brush and wiggling it around and piling it up around the base of the tree trunks. Improve the flow and extend the color of the paint by adding some Glazing Liquid. Then, use loose horizontal strokes to fill in the forward area, allowing various shades to create some dimension. Rinse the brush.

Switch to the Synthetic Round brush and load it with the Light Grey mix. Paint some sketchy highlights onto the sides of the trees that face the light source. Add Glazing Liquid as needed to improve flow. Highlight the trees on both sides of the canvas. Rinse the brush.

Dry the surface before continuing to the next step.

If you did not understand any part of this step you can ask in the comment section of this video and I will do my best to answer.

Step 8 - Snow Highlights

- Phthalo Blue = PB
- Titanium White = TW

BRUSHES & TOOLS

- Medium Hog Bright

COLOR MIXES

- Cool White = TW > PB
- Light Yellow = TW > CYM

STEP DISCUSSION

Barely tint some Titanium White into the Cool Blue mix, then begin adding highlights to the snow using the edge of the brush. Apply this color using short back and forth strokes. Allow some of the darker paint below to show through, creating shadows.

Barely tint some Titanium White with the Light Yellow mix and warm the snow through the center of the canvas, using the same short back and forth strokes.

Then, dry brush some pure titanium white over the top, and deepened the shadows once again with the Cool Blue mix. Rinse the brush.

Dry the surface before continuing to the next step.

STEP 8 PHOTO

If you did not understand any part of this step you can ask in the comment section of this video and I will do my best to answer

Step 9 - Transfer Image

Timestamp 1:09:42

“Handmaid”

PAINT

BRUSHES & TOOLS

- Saral Paper

COLOR MIXES

STEP DISCUSSION

To transfer the line drawing onto the canvas, first print out the traceable. Cut it to size and then cut a sheet of saral paper to size. Tape all four sides, being sure to place the dusty side of the Saral paper down. Place the figure where you want it and tape it down securely. Use a pencil and firmly press down to copy all the lines, hard enough that lines will be left behind. Check to see if it worked well enough before completely removing the traceable.

I have provided a traceable at the end of this tutorial although the image that follows this step will show you the process. There is no right or wrong way to get your image on the canvas. You can grid, transfer, or freehand, whatever makes you the most comfortable. If you are freehanding, you have the picture that follows this step, and the traceable to assist you.

- Paynes Grey = UB + MB
- Light Yellow = TW > CYM
- Cool White = TW > PB
- Grey = PB + TW > BS

STEP DISCUSSION

Use a damp Bright brush and the Light Grey mix to paint a shadow below the figure that starts at the bottom of the skirt, and widens as it gets to the bottom of the canvas. Without rinsing, add some Burnt Sienna to the brush and create a shadow starting on the bottom left side. Apply short horizontal strokes as you move across the bottom of the canvas to the right side. Then again, without rinsing, add Titanium White to the brush and apply it to the right side, just above the shadow. Weave in a lighter shadow using the Grey mix, allowing a lot of the lighter snow to show through. Also weave this color throughout the dark shadow just below the skirt. Rinse the brush.

Apply short horizontal strokes of the Light Yellow mix to warm the snow to the right side of the figure. Barely tint, some Titanium White with the Cool Blue mix, then lightly apply this color using short back and forth strokes, mostly on the right side of the snow.

Weave in a lighter shadow throughout the dark shadow just below the skirt using the Light Grey mix. Ensure that the harsh lines along the edges of this shadow are obscured. Rinse and wipe the brush. Dance between the color mixes in this step, making small adjustments until you are happy. Rinse the brush.

Load a damp Round brush with the Paynes Grey mix, and add a deep shadow along the bottom edge of the skirt. Rinse the brush.

Dry the surface before continuing to the next step.

Exaggerate the flare using the same Light Yellow mix to Glazing Liquid, turning the canvas as needed. Take care not to completely cover your previous work. Rinse the brush.

Dry the surface before continuing to the next step.

Use the tip of the brush and the Viva Magenta mix to carefully highlight the lighter red areas of the cloak, bonnet, scarf and arm. Then, refine the shadows of the figure using the Deep Magenta mix. Rinse the brush.

Use pure Titanium White and paint a super white highlight onto the peak of the bonnet. Then, Lightly blend some of the Brown Grey mix upward into the peak. Continue playing, the white against the grey until you are happy with the peak of the bonnet. Rinse the brush.

Refine the red areas of the cloak once again using the Viva Magenta mix on the lighter areas, and the Deep Magenta mix in the darker shadow areas, ensuring that the layering is to your satisfaction. Rinse the brush.

Use the corner of the brush and Cadmium Red Medium to add a layer of bright highlights along the top edges of the fabric folds. Then, add some splatters to the remaining bottom of the canvas, but not nearly as heavily. Rinse the brush.

Dry the surface before signing.
